Next Steps ...

Making the Case UNISON Centre Cost : £15
2 dates available: Thurs 6 April & Tues 19 Sept

This follow on course which is next steps to the branch welfare officer induction training and is a must for trained officers wishing to gain more insight into how the application & grant process works. It is usual that a BWO will have been in post for a few months and have undertaken a few cases. It will also offer helpful information and advice for sign posting.

Introduction to Benefits UNISON Centre Cost : £90
2 dates available: Mon 3 July & Mon 11 Sept

This session will give a short introduction to benefits, and will be a chance to gain valuable knowledge in this complex field. This session will be run by Neil Arnott and because this will be run by an external agency, we will have to charge accordingly. However we believe this course will be in much demand and as numbers will be very limited, it will be offered out in the first instance to trained BWOs

Tax Credit Calculator

Time is running out...

For you to claim the tax credits that you might be entitled to. About a million people are missing out on up to £50 a week. To make sure you aren't one of them you need to apply now before it's too late.

Why?

Tax credits are being replaced with Universal Credit which is less generous for most working people. It is mostly single people who currently get Universal Credit but the plan is to move everyone on to it. When that happens where you live, new claims for tax credits will stop unless you have more than two children. The government says no-one who moves from tax credits to Universal Credit will be worse off unless there is a big change to their circumstances, but UNISON believes it's important that you claim tax credits before Universal Credit arrives where you live.

Make sure the amount you get is protected so you don't lose out. UNISON has created an easy to use calculator which tells you in two minutes if you qualify and how much you should get.

It even has a link so you can immediately order a tax credit claim form online.

Go to: <https://unison-takeup.entitledto.co.uk/>

If you have any tax credit queries please contact HMRC - Tel 0345 300 3900, your local Citizens Advice Bureau or the Welfare Rights section at your Council.
